

GOOD CHOICE. LEASING INSTEAD OF BUYING

The competition never sleeps. Companies that want to keep up with the market need to invest in their infrastructure. The question is: purchase or finance? With GRENKE's leasing solutions, it's an easy decision, as purchasing equipment ties up capital that can be invested elsewhere. In pioneering strategies, in employees or in business premises.

If you decide leasing is the best option for you, just ask your equipment supplier. They will explain how leasing will benefit your business, and you can select the items you require. It doesn't matter whether the value of the equipment is considerable or on the smaller side. We finance your business from as little as £500.

Your equipment supplier will then handle all of the processing and submit the leasing request to GRENKE. In addition, they will continue to be your contact when it comes to service, guarantees and warranties. You will receive the leasing contract from your equipment supplier. After signing it, they will supply the desired items, which you will then use for the duration of the lease term, and you pay affordable instalments for them. At the end of the lease, you decide whether to return them or extend the term.

Leasing with GRENKE gives you more flexibility and liquidity, which will undoubtedly benefit you.
